

Happy 100th Birthday! Allentown Public Library

BOOKMARK CONTEST 2012 ALLENTOWN PUBLIC LIBRARY Children's Services

Help the Allentown Public Library celebrate turning 100 years old by creating a bookmark for the library's annual Summer Reading Club. Show us your creative side and create a bookmark that celebrates 100 years of the Allentown Public Library. Use the form below for your drawing, and use black pen or black marker only, no pencil please.

Winners will be selected on the basis of originality and effectiveness of idea and drawing. There are three categories: preschool & K, grades 1-4, and grades 5-8; only one entry per child, please. All entries should be delivered to the library by Saturday, February 25th. Winning designs will be announced Monday, April 30th. These designs will be printed as bookmarks and distributed to children in the Allentown and Salisbury school districts at the end of the school year to promote the Summer Reading Club.

Entries will be displayed at the library, 12th and Hamilton Streets.
