

November Events

Parkland Community Library
4422 Walbert Avenue
Allentown, PA 18104
Telephone: 610-398-1361
www.parklandlibrary.org

Road Scholar Ambassador

Tuesday, November 1st at 10:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m.

Looking for adventure? Road Scholar Ambassador Mary Pat Beebe speaks about her experiences and what to expect. Elderhostel, Inc., the not-for-profit world leader in lifelong learning since 1975, is the creator of Road Scholar educational adventures and travel.

Night at the Movies

Tuesday, November 8th at 6:30pm

Each month, the library hosts the exclusive screening of a unique and often award-winning film in the South Whitehall Township building. Under the licensing agreement, the library is not permitted to list titles here. Please call or come into the library for the information.

Books on Screen is a part of Read About It!, a book discussion series of the Pennsylvania Humanities Council

Wednesday, November 9th at 6:30pm-8:30pm

Join discussion leader Dr. Carrie Myers to discuss the novel and film To Kill a Mockingbird. Movie screening will be held Thursday, November 3rd at 6:30pm, or watch at your leisure. This program is supported by the Institute of Museum and Library Services under the provisions of the library Services and Technology Act as administered by the Pennsylvania Department of Education's Office of Commonwealth Libraries.

Women, Power, Money

Thursday, November 10th at 7pm

Join financial consultant Cherie Zettlemoyer for this informative workshop for women.

Plan B: Are You or Will You Be Unemployed?

Monday, November 14th at 10am

This workshop will discuss the many options and opportunities available through existing programs. COBRA, where to get medical coverage, unemployment, 401K, pension plans, and profit sharing plans: what to do with these funds and are they available to you for emergency purposes? Presented by Debra Flanley, CFP.

Book Quest: Elbow Room

Wednesday, November 16th at 7pm

The library's book group for adults meets to discuss Elbow Room by James Alan McPherson. New members are always welcome!

Knitting Circle

Thursday, November 17th at 1:30pm-4pm

Spend a fun afternoon swapping knitting tips and tricks! Just bring your knitting materials and enthusiasm. For knitters of all ages and skill levels.

Parenting Workshop

Thursday, November 17th at 6:30pm-8:30pm

Secrets to a Stress Free Morning - How to Get Out The Door With a Smile

Do you wish getting out the door wasn't so stressful? Are you tired of nagging, yelling or reminding your child? In this parenting workshop you will learn lots of useful tips for getting organized, setting your whole family up for success and getting out the door with peace & ease!

Designing Your New Life: Successful Retirement Strategies for Baby Boomers & Beyond

Tuesday, November 29th at 6:30pm-8pm

Panel of experts present topics and light refreshments will be served. Held in the South Whitehall Township building free of charge.

