

ALLENTOWN PUBLIC LIBRARY

1210 W HAMILTON ST.

(610) 820-2400

September/October 2018

Free Programs & Events for September & October

Toxin Free Living with Essential Oils

Monday, September 17 @ 6:30 PM – 8:00 PM

Adverse effects of chemicals and natural allergens can inhibit your healthy and happy life. Learn how essential oils can help.

Meet the Beek!

Monday, October 1 @ 6:30 PM – 8:00 PM

Meet BeeKeeper Sharon Jones Zondag as she shares the art of beekeeping. All ages welcome.

Tanka Poetry Workshop

Monday, October 15 @ 6:30 PM – 8:00 PM

Hear poet Marilyn Shoemaker's original Japanese tanka, learn the method, and try your hand at writing your own as a healthful practice.

Author Book Signing and Packing Party for Premies

Monday, October 29 @ 6:30 PM – 8:00 PM

Meet mother and daughter co-authors Lily and Jennifer Driscoll. Their book is written "by a kid for kids." Help Lily and Jen prepare packages for families of preemies. Children accompanied by a parent are welcome.

Tech Tuesdays

Every Tuesday from 9:30 AM – 11:00AM. Each week, the class covers a new computer topic and skills needed. Topics vary from basic computer functions, how to use common software like Microsoft Word, and how to use some of the various library databases. Weekly topic will be posted at the reference desk.

**Sign up at the reference desk.*

Socrates Café

First and Third Wednesdays beginning October 3, 2018

@ 10:30 AM – noon

Love philosophy? Join this gathering of people from different backgrounds. Exchange philosophical perspectives and ethical ideas based on personal experiences using the version of the Socratic Method developed by founder Christopher Phillips.

Book Clubs

Adult Book Club

September 25 @ 6:00 PM – 7:30 PM

All are invited to enjoy a relaxing evening discussing the book, Brain on Fire by author, Susannah Cahalan.

October 23 @ 6:00 PM – 7:30 PM

Into the Abyss: An Extraordinary True Story by Carol Shaben

Reserve your copy of the month's book at the reference desk.

WiFi Printing

Did you know you can print from home?

To print a PDF (like a pay stub) from a secure login, the file must be saved to your phone, tablet or laptop.

From the Library website

(www.allentownpl.org), click on

Follow the instructions in the boxes including BROWSE for the file you want to print. Click on

Bring or purchase your reloadable PRINT CARD from our vending and retrieve your document from the print station within 24 hours. (One dollar cash buys a blank card that can be loaded with value. Each printed page costs $0.15).